Re: Triller Fight Club II LLC v. Jerren Swords
United States District Court
Southern District of Ohio, Western Division
Case No. 1:21-CV-00401

Mr. Swords:

This Firm is counsel to Triller Fight Club II LLC (“Triller”). As you also know, on June 11, 2021, Triller filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio a complaint asserting against you causes of action for (i) violation of the Federal Communications Act, 47 U.S.C. § 605, and (ii) copyright infringement (the “Complaint”). These causes of action are based in part on your public admission that you unlawfully accessed, received, viewed and/or displayed the April 17, 2021, pay-per-view event known as Triller Fight Club: Jake Paul vs. Ben Askren.

Your father recently contacted me and my co-counsel, Robert E. Chudakoff, on your behalf to discuss the Complaint and potential resolution of the same. Before we continue to discuss with your father and/or you the Complaint and potential resolution of the same, we remind you that Mr. Chudakoff and I are attorneys and that we represent Triller, not you. We advise you of your right to retain your own independent attorney, at your own expense, in connection with this matter, and we encourage you to do so.

In light of the foregoing, I hereby request that you advise me, via email to or letter to the address below, on or before 5:00 p.m. ET, Friday, July 16, 2021, whether (1) you intend to retain your own attorney to represent you in connection with this matter, or (2) you do not intend to retain
